

Keeping the navigation & orientation in perspective, what care is to be taken while testing a website?

Enter P/F after checking the content under description and enter Comments / Specifications

Description	Yes	No	Don't know	Not applicable	Comments
Current location is apparent
Home page link always available
Logo is a link to Home page
All major parts of the site are accessible from the Home page
Site structure is simple & not overly deep
Clear search function is available
Search is accessible from every page					